

Christ Our Hope Pastoral Council Meeting – Thursday, March 25, 2021
Location: OLMC, Lawler Adoration – 6:30 P.M.

Mission Statement: The Christ our Hope Cluster offers meaningful, fulfilling and varied avenues of worship, Catholic education, social service and community life for all ages within our six parishes to support the active practice of Catholic Faith in all that we do.

Members Present: Steve Busta (ABVM), Melvin Bodensteiner (SL), Julianne Kout (OLMC), Leon Wiemann (ABVM), Clair Blong (SL), Kathleen Chicken (SM), Cheryl Mracek (HT), Roger Ott & Barbara Shatek (SF).

Members Absent: Kyle Fencel (HT), Gail Carolan (OLMC), Maxine Balk (SM)

COH Staff: Grace Arens, Pastoral Associate

Meeting called to order at 7:05 by Fr. Nick Radloff

Opening Prayer

Reviewed minutes of last meeting. Motion to approve – Wiemann, Second – Bodensteiner

Financial review: Cluster qualified for 2nd round of PPP which is extra income of ~$11,000. Expenses were similar.

Cluster subsidy payment will be skipped at this time until PPP is possibly forgiven.

No questions on balance sheet.

Old Business: Discussion was held on the possibility of Holy Trinity joining with Cresco.

Decision was made by the Archdiocese for Holy Trinity to remain in the Cluster so there will be no need to change the parish office.

New Business: Discussed the Easter schedule. Triduum will be held at Lawler. Fr. Knipper will help with Easter Sunday masses. There will be music included.

Masses will be: 7:00 – Assumption, Little Turkey

8:00 – St. John, Fort Atkinson

9:00 – Holy Trinity, Protivin

10:00- St. Luke, St. Lucas

11:00- St. Mary, Waucoma

With increasing attendance there is a need for additional Masses in the cluster. Beginning April 10 there will be four Masses available each weekend.

Discussion was held on when to have adoration – before or after Mass?

Parish elections will be held in May.

7:45 Move to adjourn: Bodensteiner, second – Blong.

Closing prayer.

Next meeting – May 20, 2021
